Salem, Va.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALEM, VA., January 5.—Mrs. Lewis Emsend gave a most enjoyable card party Thursday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Kitten Rowen, of West Virginia. After playing cards for several hours, the entire party repaired to the ballroom where a Crawford, where an informal dance completed the evening. Delightful refreshments, consisting of salads, ices and punch, were served. Those present were Misses Bessie Tompkins, Irma Killian, Jane Johnston, Annie Laughorne, Belle Martin, Liza Logan, Loomis Logan, Eugenia Griffin, Bessie Galloway, Nannie Logan, Mattie Brown, Nancy Logan, Gussie Bowles, Sallie Logan, Sue Kelly and Miss Mary Peake; Messrs. W. B. Tinsley, Lyle McClung, Rufus Bowman, Cary Johnston, Fred Chapman, Powell Chapman, John Logan, Frank Wiley and Charles Johnston.

Mr. Wirt Kelly very delightfully entertained a number of friends at a progressive euchre party Friday evening. Mrs. H. E. Pugh and Mr. J. K. Bowman won the head prizes, and the consolation prizes were awarded to Miss Irma Killian and Mr. W. B. Tinsley. A dashy supper was served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Throckmorton, who have been visiting at the home of Dr. F. V. N. Painter, left Wednesday for their home in Danville, Ky.

Col. A. M. Bowman left Wednesday for Richmond to attend a meeting of the Newtown Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Roberts are the guests of Capt. Roberts on Main Street.

A very successful musical entertainment by the "Musical Five," of Boston, was given Monday night at the Town Hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The

SOCIAL LIFE AT WILMINGTON

WILMINGTON, N. C., January 5.—New Year's week again presented a merry time to Wilmington society, though the entertainment was more in the shape of card parties and home receptions. The general events of interest were a masquerade ball, given by Harmony Circle, and the Christmas dance of the L.A.E. Club. The latter was especially of brilliant nature, and the German was led by Mr. Paul Cantwell. One of the most popular dancers was Miss Bessie Doyle, of Norfolk, Va., who went as the partner of Mr. Raymond Hunt.

Captain John Ernest Reinburg and wife returned to Norfolk Wednesday, and New Year's night a delightful party reception was given to Mrs. Reinburg by her friend, Miss Anna Cantwell. Tuesday afternoon she was the guest of honor at a tea given by Miss Mary Moares, and Monday afternoon at a tea given by the Misses Gibson, who also entertained at cards in honor of Captain and Mrs. Reinburg Monday night.

Baroness Frederik Polsson, of London, England, left Wednesday morning for New York, thence to sail for home. She was accompanied back north by her two sons, Messrs. Herbert and Emile Latimer, who are collectors at Princeton. While here the party was entertained at the home of the baroness.

Mrs. Virginia Emile, on Ann Street.

An engagement announcement of much interest to local society is that of Miss Emma Northrop to Mr. Howard McClintock. Both are popular young people.

Among the popular Yuletide visitors were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Herkamp, of Fredericksburg, Va., guests of Mrs. Herkamp's sister, Mrs. James Sprunt, and Miss Nannie Roper, of Petersburg, Va.,

who was entertained by Miss Margaret Smith.

Last Monday Mr. J. Holmes Davis, a popular young society man, and cashier of the Carolina Savings and Trust Company, arrived home from Louisville, Ky., with his bride of a few days, Miss Alma D. Brewer, of Louisville. Mr. Davis went off during the Christmas time apparently to make a visit to Louisville, and while there he surprised his friends by taking unto himself a wife.

Another surprise marriage to Wilmington folks was the wedding New Year's night of Miss Ethel Chadwick and Mr. Cleveland Galloway. Without notice to friends the couple went to the parsonage of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and were there united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D.

NOTES FROM MITCHELL

MITCHELL, VA., January 5.—There was a little gaiety here Christmas for the benefit of the home-comers from the various schools and institutes.

A small dance was given at Crooked Run for the benefit of Mrs. Virginia Tinsley, home from Farmville, and a "conversations" at Clover Dale for the benefit of W. C. Petty, Jr., of Fork Union Academy. Both were attended by Captain Alpheus Williams, of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and Mr. Wallace Lamon, of the senior class of the same institute; Mr. Lucian Blocker, of the University, and Mr. Zack A. Petty, home for the holidays, from Charlottesville, Va.

The farmers of this county are trying as laborers Canadians, and have found them satisfactory. They come with their families, and are willing to work all day. The women, too, are strong and able; will wash, milk, and do anything that comes to hand. Those that are here, some four or five families, report that others are anxious to come, all they want is transportation. The enforced idleness of the long Canadian winters consumes all their summer wages, and there is nothing left to take them South unless sent for, however anxious they may be to go.

Pinehurst

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PINEHURST, N. C., January 5.—A merry week rounded out the old year and welcomed the new, sports and social pleasures combining happily.

Among the pleasures of the social affairs was a New Year's Eve party at the Holly Inn, progressive bridge occupying the first part of the evening, and a dance the latter. At midnight, lights were extinguished, and with a cluster of candles in the centre of the hall, the group a weird and fantastic ghost dance as a farewell to the old year and a welcome to the new. Shortly after midnight Mr. and Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph, of Philadelphia, gave a select dinner of ten covers to a party of close acquaintances.

Quail hunting, trap and pistol shooting, golf, tennis, and riding, are all being enjoyed, and delightful weather is contributing to the pleasure of all.

The Berkshire Hotel opened Tuesday with many returning friends, and the opening of the magnificent Carolina, January 11th, is being anticipated, as it marks the commencement of many delightful social affairs.

Late Manhattan arrivals include the following: Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Clarke, Miss Katherine Clarke, Miss Louisa Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Newington, Master John C. Newington, John Thompson, Mrs. J. H. Motley, Mr. and Mrs. W. Laymon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hall, Ed. Kelly, C. S. Heuter, C. S. Bradt, H. J. Washburn, F. M. Sparks, and C. D. M. Halsey.
